

Poem for Sunday Service 5th April 2020

Written and recorded by Gina Langsfied during the closure for the Spiritualist Association of Great Britain at this time

*Good afternoon everyone, this is Gena once again speaking on behalf of the SAGB, and hoping you are all managing to keep watching for our rainbow. Getting your strength from spirit through this sad and frustrating period. My poem for you today is called In the Presence of Angels.

In the Presence of Angels

If we are plagued by insecurities and feel haunted by doubt and fear, take heart in the light of knowledge that angels are always near. We are always in their presence, whether it be those of the ascended kind or our own beloved spirit family, friends or pets who are constantly in our minds.

They come to sooth us in our pain to wipe away our tears they need us to know until we are home with them again, they walk beside us through our earthly years.

Perhaps we cannot see nor them, nor hear, nor sense, nor feel. But one God given fact is certain, angelic presences are real. So throughout both our happiest times on earth and those times that will frighten and greave us. We are forever in the Presence of Angels, who no matter what will never abandon nor leave us.

On behalf of our manager Karl, the Mediums, Healers the Staff and Trustees, and of cause myself Gena. May our Angels keep us going until hopefully soon, our normal lives return and we can be all together again, God Bless
