Good afternoon to all.

Would you please like to join me in prayer.

Dear God, loving Spirit

May the light of your comfort and love shine down on all those who join with us today and in turn let us shine forth that light, love and comfort worldwide in service to you and to all mankind.

Amen

The Value of Mediumship

The following is an extract from the teachings of Silver Birch.

Have we not thought to demonstrate that service is the calling of the Spirit the only wealth it possesses and that it is desired to share with all. Knowledge always brings responsibility, how often have you heard that said by me? The responsibility is that you shall use this knowledge wisely and well.

Those who live in my world do not come back to you only, so that it should gladden your heart but that this return from another life should act as a stir, an incentive that it should quicken you make you feel the desire to render service to others.

Not all are called on to speak from platforms, to demonstrate the gift of the Spirit to multitudes, to a few or in the privacy of their home the opportunity for service comes to all those who desire to help, the love which compels those who live in our world to manifest to you, is the same love that they seek to kindle in your heart so that expressing you too can manifest this quality, it's beauty to others who need it badly.

Look around you in the world of today and see the many empty, troubled, sorrowing hearts, those who shed tears of sadness, those who are weary and perplexed, those who have lost their way, those who find that the foundations of their faith have been shattered. Those who have lost all their possessions, those who know not where to turn, those who think they are without guidance, without help and without hope, realise that the field of labour is large and the opportunities for service are many.

Although Silver Birch did not deliver these words in our present times, how appropriate they are still. All around us, all over our earthly globe souls are suffering, loneliness, isolation and stress for most. Illness or deprivation for many and for some grief and total heart break.

At times, such as now more than ever, we need to stand united and to comfort by giving service in any way within our individual capability. In each corner of the world, suffering has some form of individuality due to living conditions, traditions, ways of worshipping, cultural ways of thinking, health and economic differences, but to the human soul itself there are no differences, grieving is universal, fear is universal, equally hope, love and the ability and need to aid others by rendering some sort of service are all universal.

We are all of Spirit and from Spirit when our time to pass over comes we will all be welcomed home to Spirit.

Let us use this present opportunity to start circulating the coinage of Spirit, which as Silver Birch tells us is service, service to all, spreading universal love, universal Spiritual truths, universal light so that all those people can sing to the same tune and bring life to what has recently been a rather dark world.

On behalf of our manager Karl and the trustees, our staff, mediums, healers and of course myself Gina.

God Bless you all and to our Zoom listeners back over now to Penny O'Meara.
