

Sunday Service 12th July 2020
Written and recorded by Gina Langsfield during the closure, for the Spiritualist Association of Great Britain

Good afternoon everyone, this is Gina Langsfield speaking to you once again on behalf of the SAGB. And giving you a warm welcome to today's special service of celebration for our 148th anniversary. And for those joining us on Zoom lets give a very special warm welcome to our 2 mediums for today, Pauline Mason and Daniel Pitt. And as always, a special thank you to our chairperson Penny O'Meara.

Would you please like to join me in prayer

Dear God, loving Spirit

We ask today that a blessing be bestowed upon our dearly loved home in Battersea, that soon it will again be a safe haven, open to welcome all who seek spiritual comfort, all who seek spiritual knowledge, all who seek spiritual healing and all who seek spiritual advancement.

Please meanwhile send your loving light to all who have passed and present on earth or in Spirit served the Association, and all past, present and future are and will be part of this lovely gathering.

May the SAGB be protected always and held safe for all the anniversaries yet to come.

Amen

148th Anniversary Tribute

To all of us who know only too well the comfort and joy the SAGB has provided over this long history, we realise just how important today's celebration is and how privileged we are to be a part of something so special, precious and unique. But my main message today, is for those who may be joining us perhaps for the first time, through the use of Zoom or Facebook and who may have yet never had the chance to join us physically at our spiritual home, and perhaps may even be discovering spiritualism itself for the first time, perhaps directly or through one of our regulars.

The lyric that have inspired me today, 'I'll be loving you eternally, with a love that's true eternally' struck a chord with the all familiar glorious truth, of everlasting life and eternal love, between ourselves and those whom sadly, so many on earth still think off as dead, this cruel misconception is one of the greatest tragedies in our world. Fear, fear of deaths of the physical overcoat, the body of matter, we destroy our condition and yet there is death of a cherished and treasured way of life which is taken from us when one we love passes into Spirit.

But that person you love and miss so much, is not dead, nobody dies, nobody can die. It's the universal law, sadly you'll realise that it is not accepted by so many. It is such a sad thing when we hear people say, so often, is there a life after death, will the dead ever come back and tell us, but the beautiful fact is, they do. And at our own SAGB as just one special advantage they have been coming, for the past 148 years.

Excitedly waiting for the loved ones, they had to physically leave behind to walk through the doors and in a sitting or join a public demonstration and give them the chance, to come and give proof that they still live and still love, eternally. There is nothing so profound, so touching, so priceless as to hear the joy and elation in a recipients voice, as they receive evidence from a medium for the first time that their loved one is present, to see the tears of happiness and relief, to hear the laughter of shared jokes, from the beloved ones believed dead and gone.

There are no dead, there are just earth people and spirit people, separated only by a veil of dimensional frequencies and separated only by sight and sound on the earth person's part, because the Spirit can be an advantage they still see you, still hear you and still share your life and always will. Until that time comes when you cross into their world and, as the fairy tale ending would put it, you will live happily ever after.

There is no better time than on this anniversary to share around the world this truth of God's most sacred gifts, eternal life, eternal truth, eternal love.

And as we pay tribute to our wonderful mediums of the past and to the wonderful mediums who serve Spirit today. I hope that we may soon all be altogether again at our Battersea home, and that many more will join us there and become part of our SAGB family, to receive messages of love and those that have past but have not died and who will be loving you, eternally.

On behalf of our manager Karl and the trustees, our mediums, healers and of course myself Gina, we thank you for joining us and God bless.

Spoken by Gina Langsfield
