

Poem for Sunday Service 12th April 2020

Written and recorded by Gina Langsfied during the closure for the Spiritualist Association of Great Britain at this time

Today service would have been dedicated to

World Health Day 7th April

but more so this year in honour to all those that are on the front line and volunteers that give of themselves unconditionally for humanity

~ We stand up and applaud you ~

Good afternoon to you all this is Gena speaking once again on behalf of the SAGB and welcome to our Sunday reunion. I would like to first to give an acknowledgement to World Health Day, which seems so significant during this time that we are going through the dark days of the Coronavirus pandemic. We hope that spirit is with and soon, health will be reestablished Worldwide. My poem for you today is called the Promise of Easter.

The Promise of Easter

There is a reason why the celebration of Easter, has become so associated with the blessing of spring, for both are the symbols of resurrection of new life within everything. We have also come to associate Easter with sheared good times and with need to embrace, but sadly we may sometimes face an Easter when this may not be the case.

Yet it is at these perhaps less than perfect Easters, when spirit draws closes of all, they raise us up high again from our lowest point and make certain that we do not stumble and fall.

It is hard sometimes through our sadness, when we are missing loved ones so very much. Weather we are psychically separated on earth or indeed in separate dimensions, we long so much for someone's tender touch, to remember that with love there is no separation and love will always find a way.

To be united by the symbol of rebirth and to be reunited upon a better day, this then is the promise of Easter.

Spirit will raise us up and gives us hope for tomorrow, with their assurance of the rebirth, of the joys of spring and in good time a spirit spring with no more parting nor sorrow.

It is so lovely to be able to reach you all this way, if I do ask you please to speak to and give upliftment to those unable to link with us through this connection of technology and let those know they too are not forgotten and spirit are with them.

On behalf of our manager Karl and trustees, the staff, mediums, healers and of cause myself Gina, I wish you a hopeful, healthy Easter and many truly happy ones yet to come, God Bless

Poem – The Promise Of Easter © written and spoken by Gena Langsfield

Background Music, Westlife – You Raise Me Up

Transcribed by Jackie Poole - Member and Healer

SAGB