

The Spiritualist Association of Great Britain

In remembrance and gratitude for the life of

Mrs St. Clair Stobart

Hon. Vice- President, 1st WW Heroine, Author and Speaker

On the 158th anniversary of her birth

3 February 1862

Mabel Anne St. Clair Stobart
1862-1954

Mrs St. Clair Stobart is in our book of remembrance and her motto was “The miracle always happens” – she included it in the title of her autobiography, “Miracles and Adventures’ In 1924 Mrs St. Clair Stobart founded the Spiritualist Community with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle as President. Throughout her life, Mrs St Clair Stobart spoke and wrote many words and she had a strong faith.
