

The Spiritualist Association of Great Britain

In remembrance and gratitude for the life of

Air Chief Marshal Lord Dowding

and his Fighter Command which resisted the attacks of the Luftwaffe in the summer and autumn of 1940.

Lord Dowding (1882-1970)

Air Chief Marshal Lord Dowding GCB, GCVO, CMG, master-minded the Battle of Britain and is in our book of remembrance which is on view opposite the portrait of Mrs St. Clair Stobart (1862-1954). Lord Dowding was a spiritualist who spoke at the Association's Headquarters, at large public meetings, and opened 33 Belgrave Square on 20 August 1955. An extension at Belgrave Square, 'The Dowding Wing', was opened by him in 1962. Lord Dowding presented the Association with plaster casts of what are claimed to be pixie hands and feet, produced through the mediumship of the Australian Medium, Charles Bailey (1870-1947).
