Remembering Harold Sharp researched by Jackie Poole

We are remembering the medium and pioneer of the auragraph, Harold Sharp 1890-1980. On 'Psychic News' front page headline 16th February 1980 they wrote: "Veteran, Medium Hopes to Score, 'his 90 – not out'":

"Evidence that veteran mediums never lose their spirit, comes in the person of Harold Sharp. So bedbound, he is determined to reach his 90th birthday on February 22nd. News of Harold, an auragraph medium came last week from Betty Francis. Both she and her husband have been in constant touch with Harold over the years and visited the Huddersfield, York's, vegetarian, old peoples' home, where the medium now lives." His friend Betty said "whenever I ring him, he always says, 'I'm still alive', showing his keen sense of humour. "

An auragraph is a graph of the human aura. The automatic drawing and colouring process is associated with and pioneered by Harold Sharp, along with his spirit guide 'Chin Shih' using colour and intricate rhythmic designs. Some of these intricate auragraphs produced by Harold and his guide are hung on the wall in frames here in the SAGB on the first floor.

For over 25 years, Harold worked at the SAGB, both at the 'Marylebone Spiritualist Association' and Belgrave Square where he gave evidence of survival from spirit and also taught at lectures. He is known as a prominent pioneer of the 'Spiritualist Movement'.

In Harold's early childhood, it was documented that he regularly saw the spirit of a monk and that his mother put this clairvoyance down to measles! However, in later life, he discovered the monk to be one of his early spirit guides known as 'Brother Peter' who had been a healer in Vienna. The image of Brother Peter was captured both by the psychic artists - Frank Leah and also by Coral Polge. Harold spent 18 months in a monastery which gave him tranquillity and helped to develop his mediumship, but before this Harold had come to London from a farming background, living with his father on the family farm in Leicestershire. When Harold's father had passed on, Harold went to say goodbye to his father's workmen, one was Sam Redding whose daughter had died sometime before, and he asked Harold:

"Will you do me a favour? When you go to London, try to find out whether there is anything in Spiritualism. Since our Sis passed over, I seem to have lost all grip on life."

Harold being a Roman Catholic! the suggestion horrified him! But he eventually promised to do what he asked, urging him not to build any hopes up because he was sure he would get nothing satisfactory.

On his first day in London, Harold visited 'Westminster Abbey', whilst on his way out of the Abbey, he noticed Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's psychic museum. He went in and obtained from the secretary, the names of several mediums and Harold decided to have a sitting immediately before anyone had an opportunity to discover anything and he went at once to medium Charles Gover Botham.

Harold was very careful not to give his name either to the secretary of the Doyle Museum or to Botham. He had a sitting immediately. "Hello, Harold" remarked Lily; Botham's guide, greatly to Harold's surprise. The guide mentioned, shops, father, and then gave a message for Redding: "tell him that Sis is alright over here, with your father and mother looking after her. Sam is not to grieve, because she is alright."

Harold visited all of the mediums whose names he had been given and was also told by medium Anni Johnson, "the day will arrive when through your hands will come the most extraordinary drawings. So lovely, will they be that they will go on to further most corners of the Earth."

When Harold protested, he was no artist, the medium replied, "I never said you would draw, but that drawings would come through your hand". In 1943, Psychic news published the following account of his work, which stated:

"Harold Sharp has developed a new phase of his mediumship - the auragraph. These are produced at high speed by the medium who has never had an art lesson and cannot normally draw. By means of his clairvoyance, sharp, seen the spirit artist who is responsible for his new development. He is Chan Shih a young modern Chinese man of about 30 years old. This Chinese man has often been described to sharp by other mediums, but until these drawings began, he did not know of the reason for this spirit association with him. In years, gone by Harold Sharp discovered that, when telephoning his friends, he used to doodle on scraps of paper. Then he noticed that, instead of being meaningless scribbling, he had drawn symbolic designs, some so beautiful he was loath to destroy them".

Years later, Harold visited China and went to Peking where his guide had lived. Harold was 77 when he made the 10,000 miles round trip. Harold became conscious of his guide's presence during the trip on a bus as he talked to the couple behind him, he heard a voice say, "this is the canal I told you about." It was so clear that he thought it was one of his fellow travellers. The canal came into view as they crossed the bridge. Harold immediately recognised it from previous description he had received from Chan.

Harold also loved animals and had given evidence of their survival to their humans. He wrote a book titled, 'Animals in the Spirit World', 1966, and within it many examples of survival and also shares his sense of humour in one story about a large dog called Hector who he had when he was a child on the farm. Hector just wouldn't stop drinking water all of the time wherever he went. Harold figured that if he had of been human, he would definitely have been a drunkard! More than 20 years had passed since Hector's, passing to Spirit and when Harold was in a mediumship circle, they had placed a blue bowl of water in the room, as it was known to aid some materialisation and during the circle, Hector, the dog materialised, which everybody saw and Hector lapped up all of the water from the bowl and began barking as if to say, how's that! and how clever he was before disappearing. The ladies next door were puzzled on hearing the barking!

'Psychic News' April 5th 1980, front page, 'Veteran Medium Harold Sharp Passes On'. He achieved his ambition to celebrate his 90th birthday and was promoted to Higher Service last week.".... It seems to me that Harold Sharp, father of. 'The Auragraph's' birthday' is to be remembered this week in February.

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

July 6th - Flower reading - please bring your own fresh flower

Psychometry - being able to feel into and become aware of the history of an object, a photo, a colour etc, through the residual energy left behind of the owner who may be in spirit or here on the earth plane. In doing so, information about the object and its owner reveals itself in an often surprising and moving way.

Please note that you should place the object on the table when you come into the auditorium. The medium then comes in when everything has been placed down to ensure that nothing was witnessed by her before the meeting commences.
