

Spiritualist Association of Great Britain

A Weekend of Events, May 29th 30th 31st
With

Eric Cargill B.Sc. Eric has developed his link with the spirit for over 30 years. Nowadays, he is in demand throughout the U.K., Europe and America

Gerald O'Hara B.Sc CSNU is a historian, medium, and lecturer. Speaking on the history of Spiritualism in the U.K. and America. He is the author of the series "Mediumship in America," comprising 6 books.

Friday 29th

Trance Demonstration. 7 pm Eric allows the spirit world to take control and communicate; his guide, Lucy, answers questions and links with loved ones who communicate with the sitters. Other spirits join in the evening, offering their insights and guidance. Members £8 non-members £12

Saturday 30th

Blending in the power, a Workshop. 11 am to 4:30 pm, Spirits are all around us, yet we struggle to connect closely. This workshop focuses on blending with our guides and learning how to express the spirit's message. An opportunity to develop the skills to bring the messages of love to individuals and the world. Be prepared to link emotionally, mentally and spiritually with the Spirit World. Members £50 non-members £60

Saturday 30th

Lecture by Gerald O'Hara, B.Sc. 6 pm: "Voices and Visitors", The York Seance Experience 1899-1929. An illustrated talk, in which Gerald tells the stories of the many forgotten physical and trance mediums that gave their "Dark Offices" at the York Church.
By Donation

Sunday 31st

Understanding Physical Mediumship. 11 am - 12:30. An exploration of Physical mediumship and its development. Reflecting on mediums past and present with opportunities to explore energy building. Bring your experiences, questions and willingness to participate. Members £12 non-members £15

Sunday Open Circle 2 pm Members £5.50 non-members £7.00

Sunday 3:30 pm Sunday Service of Reunion by Donation

For Reservations and Bookings: 0207 931 6488