Remembering Edgar Cayce

researched by Jackie Poole

Edgar Cayce is known as 'The Sleeping Prophet', 'he was born on 18th of March 1877 – and passed to Spirit on January 3, 1945 in his 68th year, he was born in Christian County, Kentucky, his parents were farmers and he was raised in the disciples of Christ and he was one of six children.

His occupations are listed as clairvoyant, photographer, Sunday school teacher and Homeopath and in 1931 he founded a non-profit organization called, 'The Association for Research and Enlightenment'.

Edgar said that as a child; he had seen a woman with wings who told him that his prayers were answered. He had been praying kneeling by his bed nightly. He said he was frightened, but most of all he wanted to help others especially sick children and he decided he would like to be a missionary. He had shared this story with the journalist and biographer Thomas Sugrue who wrote Cayce's story in the book named, 'There is a River.' (1942) He also told this journalist that he had read the entire Bible every year of his life. And also, how a Spirit had appeared to him and told him to sleep on top of the school work that he needed to learn.

During his school years he was viewed by his main school teacher as unable to pass spelling tests; according to the biography - (There is a river' the story of Edgar Cayce the landmark biography of the modern prophet' which was published 3 years before Edgar Cayce's passing to Spirit) - the next night after a complaint from the school teacher his father ruthlessly tested him for spelling, eventually knocking him out of his chair with exasperation, at that point Edgar heard the voice of the Spirit who had appeared and told him that if he could sleep on it they would help him.

He begged his father for a rest and put his head on the spelling book. When his father came back into the room and woke him up Edgar knew all of the answers! In fact, he could repeat anything in the book. His father thought he had been fooling before and knocked him out of the chair again! (retold with a sense of laughter, not for pity's sake) eventually Edgar used all his school books that way and by 1892 the teacher regarded him as his best student. On being questioned Edgar told the teacher that he saw pictures of the pages in the books. His father became proud of this accomplishment and spread it around resulting in Edgar becoming different from his peers. It seems that Edgar Cayce was the first to share this method of learning. (I remember being told to try this in the 1970's)

His early adult life involved an apprenticeship at a photography studio that had begun following a job as a salesman to work quietly because he had lost his voice following an illness. It is reported in February 1900 that a stage hypnotist had hypnotised Cayce in an attempt to restore his voice. As he had been unable to speak above a whisper except when under hypnosis when his voice returned in a trance like state. Later -

Edgar Cayce practiced medical diagnosis by clairvoyance for 43 years, as a means to research # of course all medical diagnosis by mediumship is not admissible. The participants had agreed to have these medical readings, but it is still not allowed without a medical licence. Cayce left stenographic reports of 9,000 of this diagnosis to the 'Association for Research and Enlightenment' along with hundreds of complete case reports containing affidavits by the patients and other reports by physicians. He did not use his ability except to prescribe for the sick and to give spiritual advice and vocational guidance when these were specifically requested. # Please note this will not be happening here at the SAGB.

He never made any public demonstrations of his powers. He was never on the stage and he never sought any publicity. He did not seek wealth. Quite often he would request prayers or candles to be lit for him in place of any payments. (mentioned in biography)

Cayce's references' elsewhere to the causative powers, of the mind: 'the Spiritual is the Life' 'the Mental is the Builder', 'the Physical is the Result', these ideas melded his cosmic philosophy; with tenants of new thought, Christian Science and mental healing. Cayce was able to diagnose people who he had never met; just been told about, and recommend a cure and send healing to them. He did this while in a trance state. Hence known as 'The Sleeping Prophet.'

Thoughts are things. Thoughts have a frequency. Also, he promoted healthy eating but it matters to settle your thoughts first! Otherwise, the healthy eating doesn't count as healthy.

(and actually, how many times have we all been told to pray before eating and be grateful?)

Of course, regarding every pioneer of any type that I research, there is always certain counter beliefs and sceptics: Michael Sherma wrote in, 'Why people believe weird things' 1997 About Edgar Cayce, he said:

"He was uneducated beyond the ninth grade; Cayce acquired his broad knowledge through voracious reading and from this he elaborated tales. He was fantasy prone from his youth often talking with angels and receiving visions of his dead grandfather."

Also, Cayce's 'Association for Research and Enlightenment' has also been criticised for promoting pseudoscience. Also, health experts are critical of his unorthodox treatments such as his promotion of pseudoscientific dieting and homeopathic remedies which they consider quackery. In 1910, the New York Times published an article on him titled:

'Illiterate man becomes a doctor when hypnotised!'

However, 'The daily Mail' newspaper was Cayce's particular delight. Also, here was a mailing list of several thousand people who were interested in anything that pertained to Edgar Cayce.

It was proof to him that: "here a little, there a little, thoughts upon thought, line upon line, stone upon stone, his work did not fail!" and that as a reading once told him, 'Every sincere try is counted to you for righteousness' and this with the work of his Association makes it possible for those who are interested to participate in a Spiritual labour was the answer to his dreams.

The city of healing had risen, but it was built by hearts not hands!

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
