This workshop is for all levels of progress within your communication to be comfortable and you to be confident in your connection to Spirit. Whether you are just starting out on this journey, or you are working as a medium one to one or on platform, you will enjoy this day of learning and you will progress in the experience that it will bring.

We will concentrate on your ability to let go of your conscious mind, the thoughts that sew the seed of doubt that you are not connecting to the World of Spirit and you will experience being truly in The Power to give the detail in your communication.

If you wish to understand your intuition and get the self out of the way and know your own Power, then this day is definitely for you.

What do we understand as being our Higher Self and how may we connect to it?

Who are our Spirit Guides and how do we connect and channel their wisdom and understand how they are working with us?

Attunement what is this and how do we get into the Power and hold our Power.

Intuition development. Where is the energy with our 3rd Eye & Crown chakra always open?

Dorothy is a gentle and encouraging teacher. Allow her on this special workshop to establish, develop and consolidate your Power. Know your Spirituality and find your truth. It will be a special and busy day with exercises and much to encourage the deepening of your attunement and ability to know your own strengths and confirm your ability in Mediumship.

Remembering Mrs Ivy Northage

researched by Jackie Poole

Mrs Ivy Northage, (10/07/1909 - 31/03/ 2002) was one of Great Britain's highly respected 'Spiritualist Trance Mediums' and also a mediumship tutor; having worked for Spirit for over fifty-years around England's spiritualist churches, including forty-years at the SAGB from 1956 where she is fondly remembered. In the beginning, Ivy first demonstrated trance mediumship on 'platform' which was very unusual at the time in 1938. She developed, taught and lectured with her Oriental Spirit guide called, 'Chan'.

Originally baptised 'Margaret Fitzpatrick', - in Middlesborough to working class parents of Irish and Italian descent living in hardship in 1909, when her father was killed by an accident on the steelworks where he worked when Ivy was only three- months- old. The family then destitute, moved to London for support. Her single parent mother had to work long hours and Ivy through a charity had Montessori trained care. Ivy relied on the kindness of teachers for emotional support.

Ivy married Stanley Northage, a butcher's son when she was eighteen and he was twenty-two and it was Stanley who took the lead into spiritualism as he loved to study and he had discovered Oliver Lodge and Conan Doyle's books. He enthusiastically read a lot about spirit communication. However, during a spiritual service Stanley was told that his wife was a potential medium and that she was very gifted and then, somewhat pushed by Stanley's enthusiasm, after many-many- months of 'sitting in the power' and getting evidential contact with spirit herself; Ivy began to develop.

However, Ivy did not rush to demonstrate her trance mediumship publicly. Although she had been developing with Chan for eight-years at home and had been attending spiritualist services, her first public platform demonstration happened in Walthamstow's Spiritualist Church because the medium didn't show up and Ivy had been put on the spot!

In her autobiography titled - 'While I Remember,' Ivy recalled: "I remember sitting up on the platform paralysed with fear. I was of course familiar with the procedure and I sat numbly through the opening prayer and the address.....I did not know what I was going to do. All my training had been in trance with Chan, but I had never seen anybody at the various churches we visited give clairvoyance in trance from the platform. I was desperate and on the point of thinking I would have to get up and say 'I am sorry friends I can't do this.' At that moment I became aware of the familiar cloaking of Chan."

Today, those that remember Ivy Northage and Chan at the SAGB, say that it was a privilege to have attended demonstrations and 'Lectures with Chan.' She is described as authentic, articulate and disciplined; as in an 'old school manner.' In literature Ivy is described as a, 'no nonsense person,' and all of these descriptions come to light when listening to any of 'The Chan Lectures,' that were recorded at the SAGB where audiences were invited to ask Chan questions at the end of the lectures. I would also like to add after reading Ivy's autobiography, 'While I Remember,' that she had an amazing sense of humour.... And a final quote from Ivy's book:

"I am glad when people say that I (meaning Chan) have helped them but glad in a detached way. I now have this inner note, an inner chord, which tells me. If I have done the best I could. That is what matters to me."

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
