Remembering Estelle Roberts - researched by Jackie Poole

May- Estelle - Wills was born on May 10, 1889 and passed to Spirit on May 30, 1970 aged 81. The Wills family were living at May cottage in Kensington and she was one of eight children. As a child May- Estelle heard spirit voices which the other members of her family could not, though she knew nothing of Spiritualism, she soon came to recognise them as the voices of the Spirit people, and knowing herself to be part of them as they were part of her. She had a major psychic experience in the form of a vision when she saw a dazzling knight in shining white armour and this time her sister Dolly saw this too and collapsed in a faint. Her parents were disturbed and puzzled by the occurrences but this verified to them that what May- Estelle had been hearing and seeing was not in her own imagination. A frequent visitor from the spirit world was her brother, who had passed to spirit before she was born. Many other spirit children would also visit, and it was a constant cause of concern when her parents would listen to her having conversations with them and she said in her autobiography 'Fifty Years a Medium' that she was beaten by her father with a leather strap; although it isn't that long ago in our history that this was considered acceptable behaviour from parents and teachers; as in punishing. Thankfully changes were made.

Aged 15 Estelle secured a position as a nursery maid to a family in Turnham Green, London, looking after the children, a position which she loved. Another place she worked was at Victoria Station.

At the age of 31 May- Estelle married Arthur Roberts; it was from this period in the early 1920s that she, now known as Estelle Roberts, started to become involved with Spiritualism, initially at Hampton Hill Spiritualist Church. At the 3rd meeting that she attended the Medium Mrs Elizabeth Cannock, told Estelle:

"You are a Medium and have much work to do. Chosen by the Spirit World, you must not ignore the call."

A Spirit Guide called, 'Red Cloud' began to guide and work with Estelle and when she asked Red Cloud exactly who he was he would answer, "Know me by my works."

As Spiritualists and with Red Cloud's communication Estelle said that we know that he had passed this way before us when he probably dwelt in Egypt. Estelle continued to sit in her home circle with others, included in the home circle was Sylvia and Maurice Barbanell; the founder of Psychic News. Over many years Red Cloud delivered scores of lectures, both in public and private settings including at, The Royal Albert Hall and at the SAGB when known as, 'The Marylebone Spiritualist Association.'

The journalist Hanan Swaffer said that he first met Estelle on a Sunday when she was the clairvoyant at the 'Marylebone Spiritualist Association' in Bond Street and he was deeply struck by her impressively dignified appearance and he was soon to know the fact that psychic power was beginning to prepare her for what would be a challenge to almost anyone else's nerves. For instance, at 'The Royal Albert Hall' where 10,000 expectant people had gathered all hoping to enter for Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's memorial service organised by the SAGB (MSA) on 13th July 1930.

6,000 people were allowed to enter as it filled to capacity. Estelle Roberts was centre stage. There is some amazing photography of this event.

A report from 'Time Magazine' in attendance said that an empty chair was next to Lady Doyle and Estelle had shouted out "He's here" evidence was publicly given and also privately as Estelle rushed to Lady Doyle with a special message.

Estelle wrote in her book 50 years a medium I had now reached a stage in my physical development where I felt the urge to go into the highways and byways and work among people trying to bring hope and comfort to their minds and healing to their bodies. I learned to share the light of understanding which had been given to me and to help to bring into sharper focus the truth which had been demonstrated to mankind nearly 2000 years before. It began for me a gradual process of the unfolding of the psychic powers necessary for the fulfilment of my mission. This was accomplished not by special training but simply by opening up my mind to receive impressions from the spirit world and in so doing becoming the instrument for the exercise of the Divine power through Red Cloud.

I would like at this point to correct a common misconception of the manner in which spirit guides are sometimes said to treat their mediums. It is frequently suggested that guides force their way through to mediums without any regard for their feelings. I must stress this is emphatically not the case 'Red Cloud' has always treated me with gentleness and the greatest consideration for my health and well-being

Estelle also travelled abroad giving evidence of survival after death. When Estelle gave a public demonstration of her skills as a medium, the crowds could reach into the thousands everywhere. Estelle also wrote in her autobiography titled, '50 years a medium':

"I gave a demonstration of clairvoyance in The Hague. It was beyond my capacity to repeat the strange Dutch sounds spoken by the Spirit Communicators, and so for my benefit the messages had to be translated into English by a Spirit interpreter. I then repeated them aloud in English and, because a few of the audience understood the English language. Those messages were translated back into Dutch by an interpreter standing by my side on the platform."

Estelle Roberts would also be contacted directly from Spirits who wanted to contact their living relatives in order to give evidence that they were fine in the Spirit World. Estelle wrote that two- young Spirit- siblings wanted her to contact their grieving mother. They had been watching their mother reading about Red Cloud and had wanted to contact Estelle to hopefully get a message but their mother had no money. However, the spirit-siblings gave their mother's home address, and so Estelle sent the grieving mother a message of evidence by telegram. Estelle shared with us this truth:

"The first Divine law is that of love. Love is the attribute of the Divine mind, whereas fear stems from the material world. Love and fear are the two incompatible opposites, the one forever striving to cast out the other."

Estelle Roberts is regarded by the British Spiritualist Movement as one of its finest exponents of mediumship in the 20th century.

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
