Remembering Lady Muriel Dowding

researched by Jackie Poole

Baroness Lady Muriel Dowding 22/03 1908 - 20th/11/ 1993 aged 85. She was a Spiritualist and theosophical humanitarian and animal rights activist who coined the term 'Cruelty Free' a pioneer of the cruelty free movement for animals. She was born Muriel Albino in Paddington, London the eldest of two daughters her father called John was a goldsmith who originated from Italy. Her mother Hilda was a deeply dedicated spiritualist healer. Her parents separated when she was eight- years- old and she went to live with family friends but returned to her mother aged 15; where Muriel was greatly influenced by her mother's Spiritualist beliefs and she was also a strict vegetarian that laid the groundwork for Muriel's life-long work. Muriel later became the Lecture Secretary of the Theosophical Society in Tunbridge Wells and associated with White Eagle Lodge.

She had been married to an RAF fighter pilot who had been missing in action during WW2 and so Muriel had written to the retired Air Chief Marshall Lord Hugh Dowding of the Royal Air Force fighter command known for the 'Battle of Britain' desperate for any details of her husband either by official means or more spiritual channels having learnt of his interest in the Spirit - World, also he had been deeply affected by the wartime losses of his young pilots. 1st Baron Lord Hugh Dowding invited her to meet him.

Muriel on meeting with Lord Dowding, recognised him as the soldier from her childhood dreams and they had a lot of shared interests.

Lord Dowding informed Muriel that he had already visited a medium called Mrs Hunt - through which her late husband Max had come through, and his spirit explicitly told him:

"I wish you would take my wife out to lunch. You will like her."

They later married on the 25th of September 1951 at Caxton Hall; London it was their shared interest in Spiritualism which informed their concern for the ethical treatment of animals. Now together they were known as Lord and lady Dowding. Many prominent organisations and movements that she was associated with was also the RSPCA also the animal defence and antivivisection society that she joined the committee early in her advocacy career and also, she was a prominent member of the British Spiritualist community. She was also friends with Louise Lind-AF- Hageby, the famous British Swedish animal rights activist whose work inspired Lady Dowding's campaigning style and the medium Estelle Roberts; the renowned Spiritualist medium who originally gave Lord Dowding evidence of life after death prompting Muriel to reach out to him in the first place.

Sir Hugh Dowding who helped save the nation from invasion during war time was now also committed to saving animals along-side his wife. Lady Dowding also developed a close bond with Ursula Roberts eventually travelling internationally with her notably in 1972 they both visited Vancouver Canada where they conducted public interviews and settings representing the Spiritualist community.

In 1959 Dowding funded beauty without cruelty which aimed to eliminate the use of animal ingredients in cosmetics and abolish animal testing in the cosmetics industry and discourage the wearing of furs. They demonstrated their alternatives to clothing and cosmetics free from all animal cruelty were easily obtainable and the brand was founded in 1963.

Lady Dowding travelled to Poland, Finland and Russia to persuade their government to set up Institutes to investigate alternatives to research experiments on animals and further field meeting with the Indian Prime Minister where she helped secure the historic ban on exporting monkeys from India for experimentation the Indian Prime Minister named Sri Morarji Desai announced the ban the following day.

Lady Dowding was formidable opponent when defending animals but little was known of her dread of public speaking though spending two decades addressing audiences finding herself the forefront of an emerging animal rights movement. She was often mocked by the press until gradually her ideas became more accepted and she began to be taken seriously.

There is a beautiful photograph of the right honourable Lady Dowding in 1953 in her fake fur robes for the Coronation of Elizabeth II.

The Dowding house was a sanctuary for animals in need and she encouraged her husband as a member of the House of Lords to influence the new legislation to ease animal suffering.

It was also written that she also claimed to have got rid of rats and mice from her home by talking to them. (I think I shall try this myself)

The SAGB historically honoured the couples' lifetime devotion to the movement by naming the Dowding Wing in their memory which was opened by Lord Dowding himself in 1962 at 33 Belgrave Square. And prior to this he had previously opened the new SAGB at 33 Belgrave Square on August 20th 1955.

When Lady Muriel Dowding passed to Spirit in 1993, (aged 85), her ashes were buried with her husband Lord Hugh Dowding's (aged 87) in the chapel of Westminster Abbey.

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Trance Mediumship & The Altered States.

At the SAGB

Trance mediumship is a beautiful, inspiring and profound form of mediumship, whereby those in the Spirit world with a higher understanding and awareness of the life physical and spiritual, are able to pass on their guidance, wisdom and the philosophy of Spiritualism.

We are looking for individuals who would like to work with us and the Spirit world to explore, investigate and develop this sacred gift.

Trance mediumship is the first step to other aspects of mediumship that require a deeper altered and creative state of awareness.

All that is needed is an open and honest approach, the intention and ability to work with others in truth, kindness and love, and the time and effort to devote to those in the Spirit world.

This would be on a regular basis with the intention to share publicly for the benefit of all in due course.

In this time of great negativity in our world, the guidance, wisdom and love from those in the Spirit world can be a beacon of hope, peace, love and healing.

Can your Spirit blend and work in unity with the Guides and Pioneers of Spiritualism to bring forth the positive healing teachings to help all?

If so, please contact Karl to register your interest and to be invited to an informal chat with those supervising the Trance mediumship development.
